

HIV in Women at a Glance

In 2015 in the US, women accounted for 19% (7402)

of new HIV diagnoses

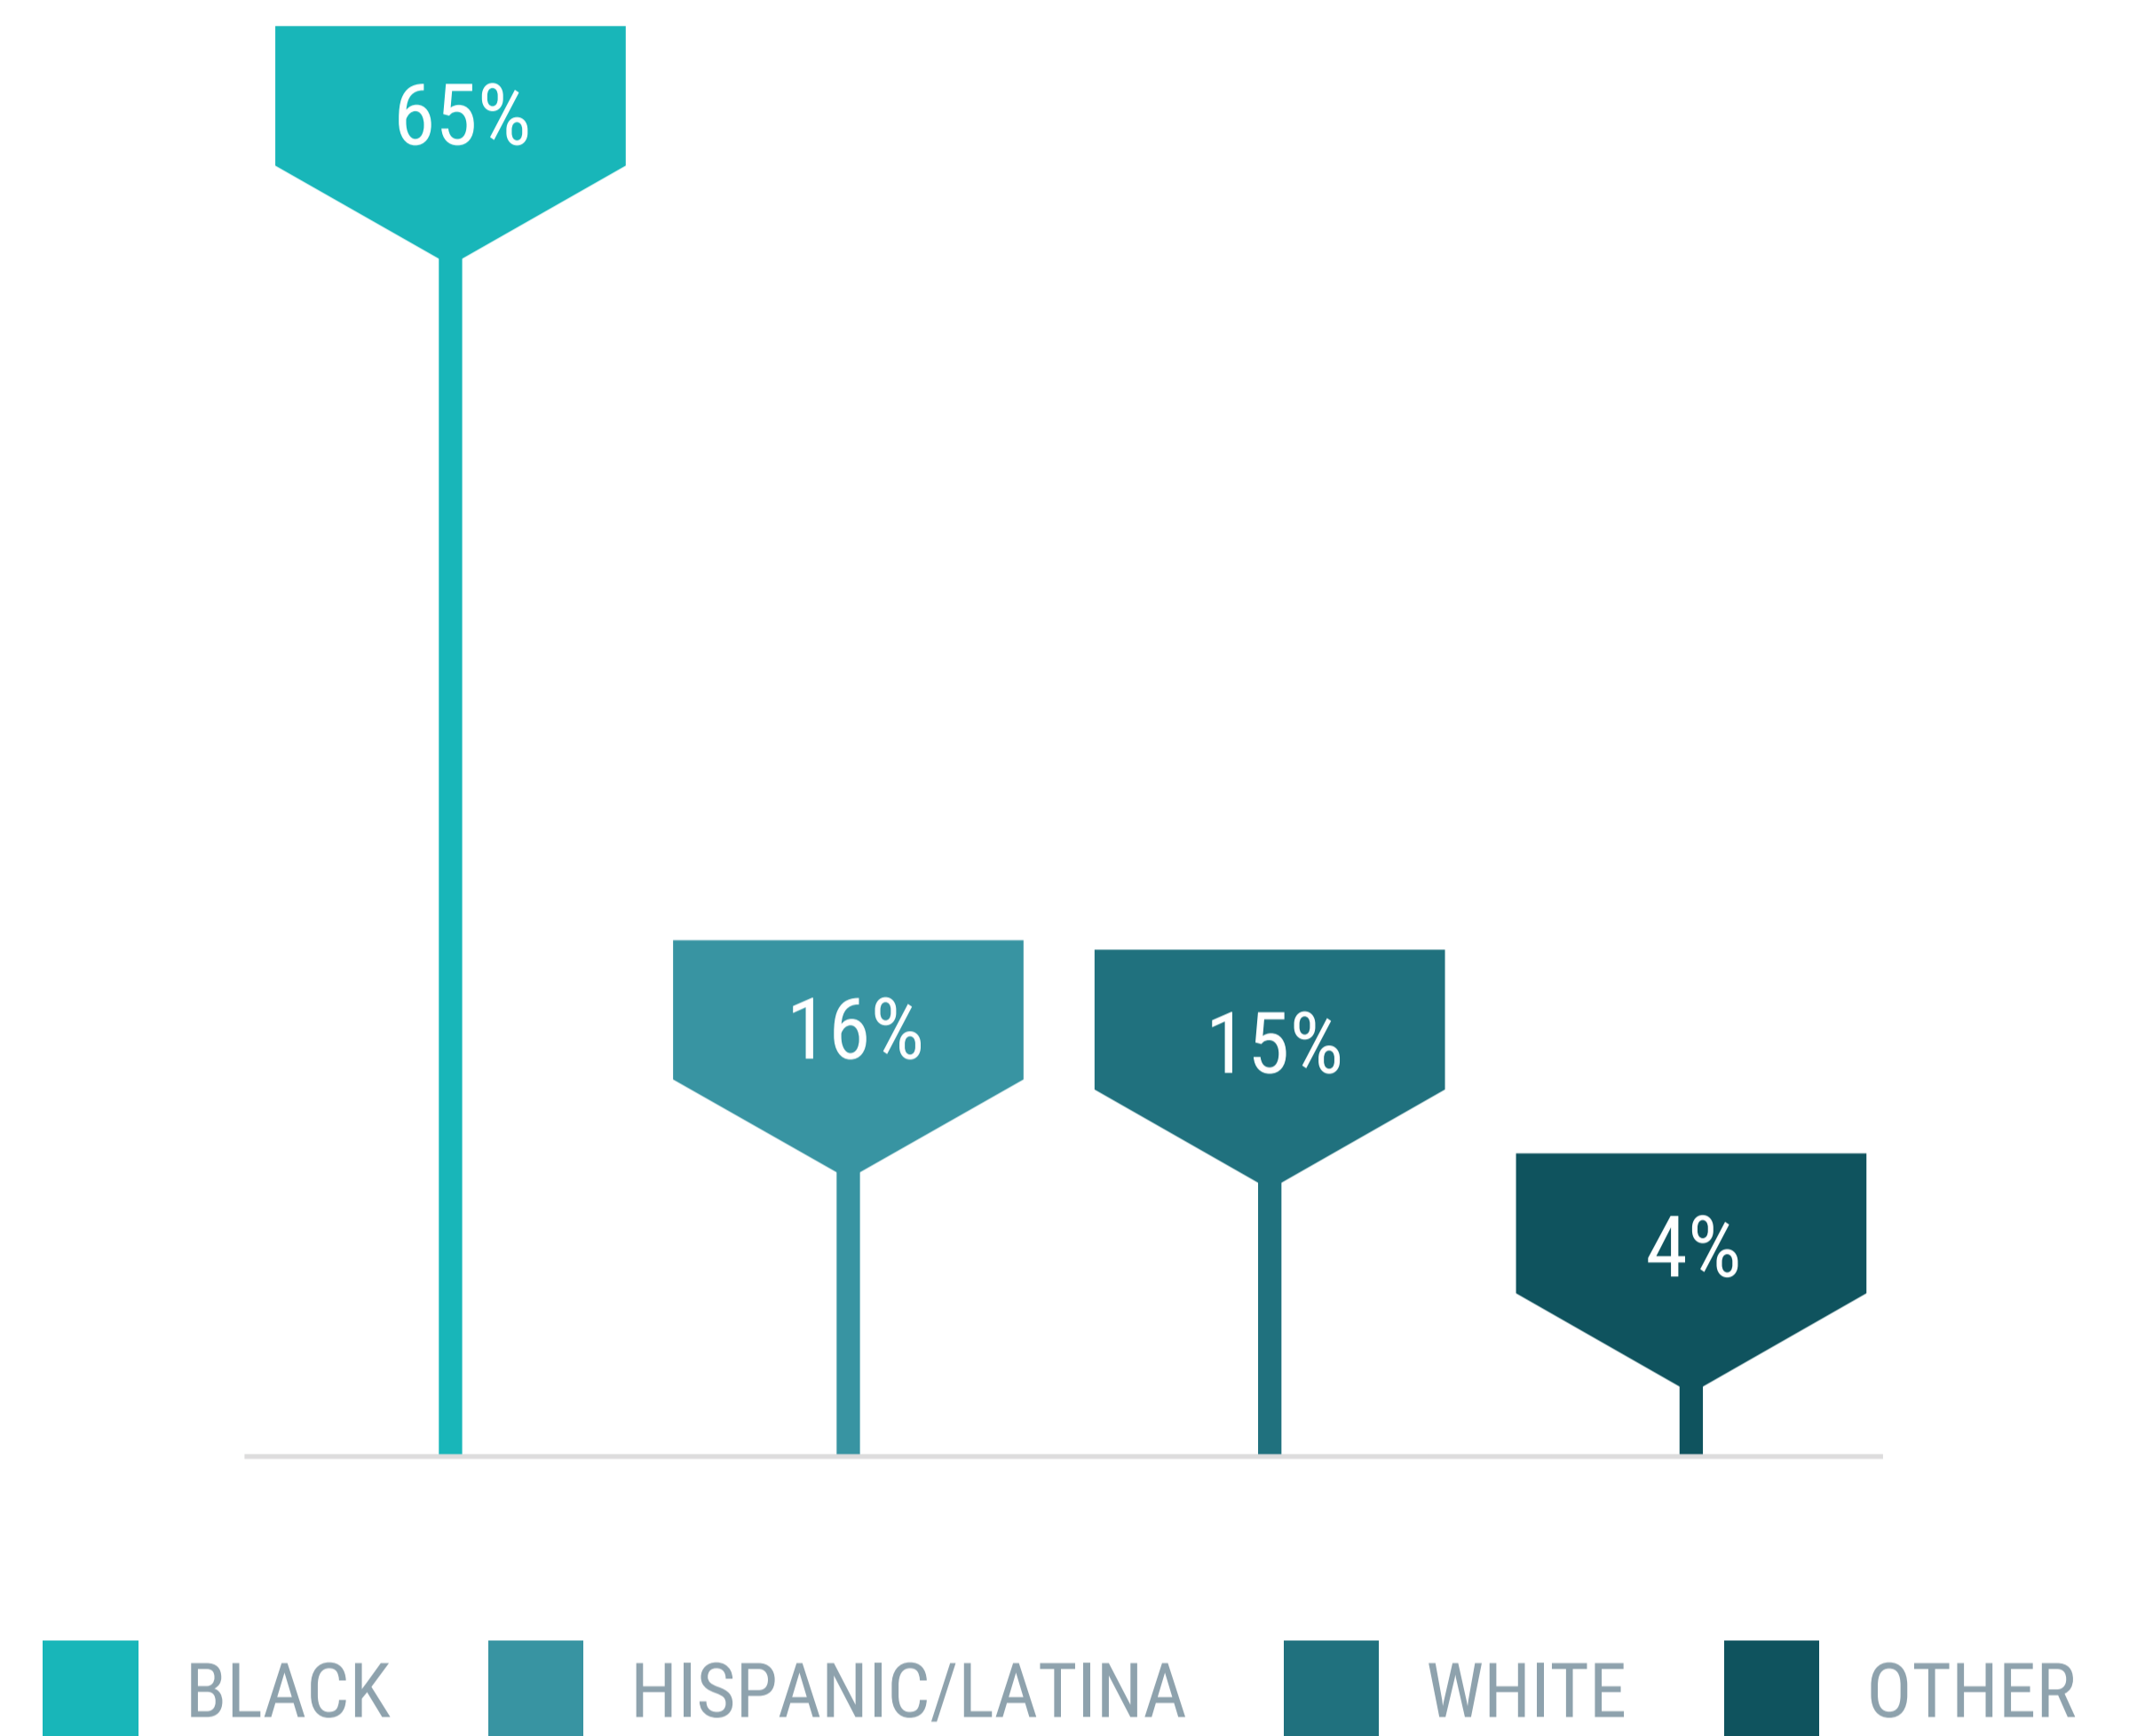

Causes

Diagnoses among women are primarily attributed to

Racial Breakdown

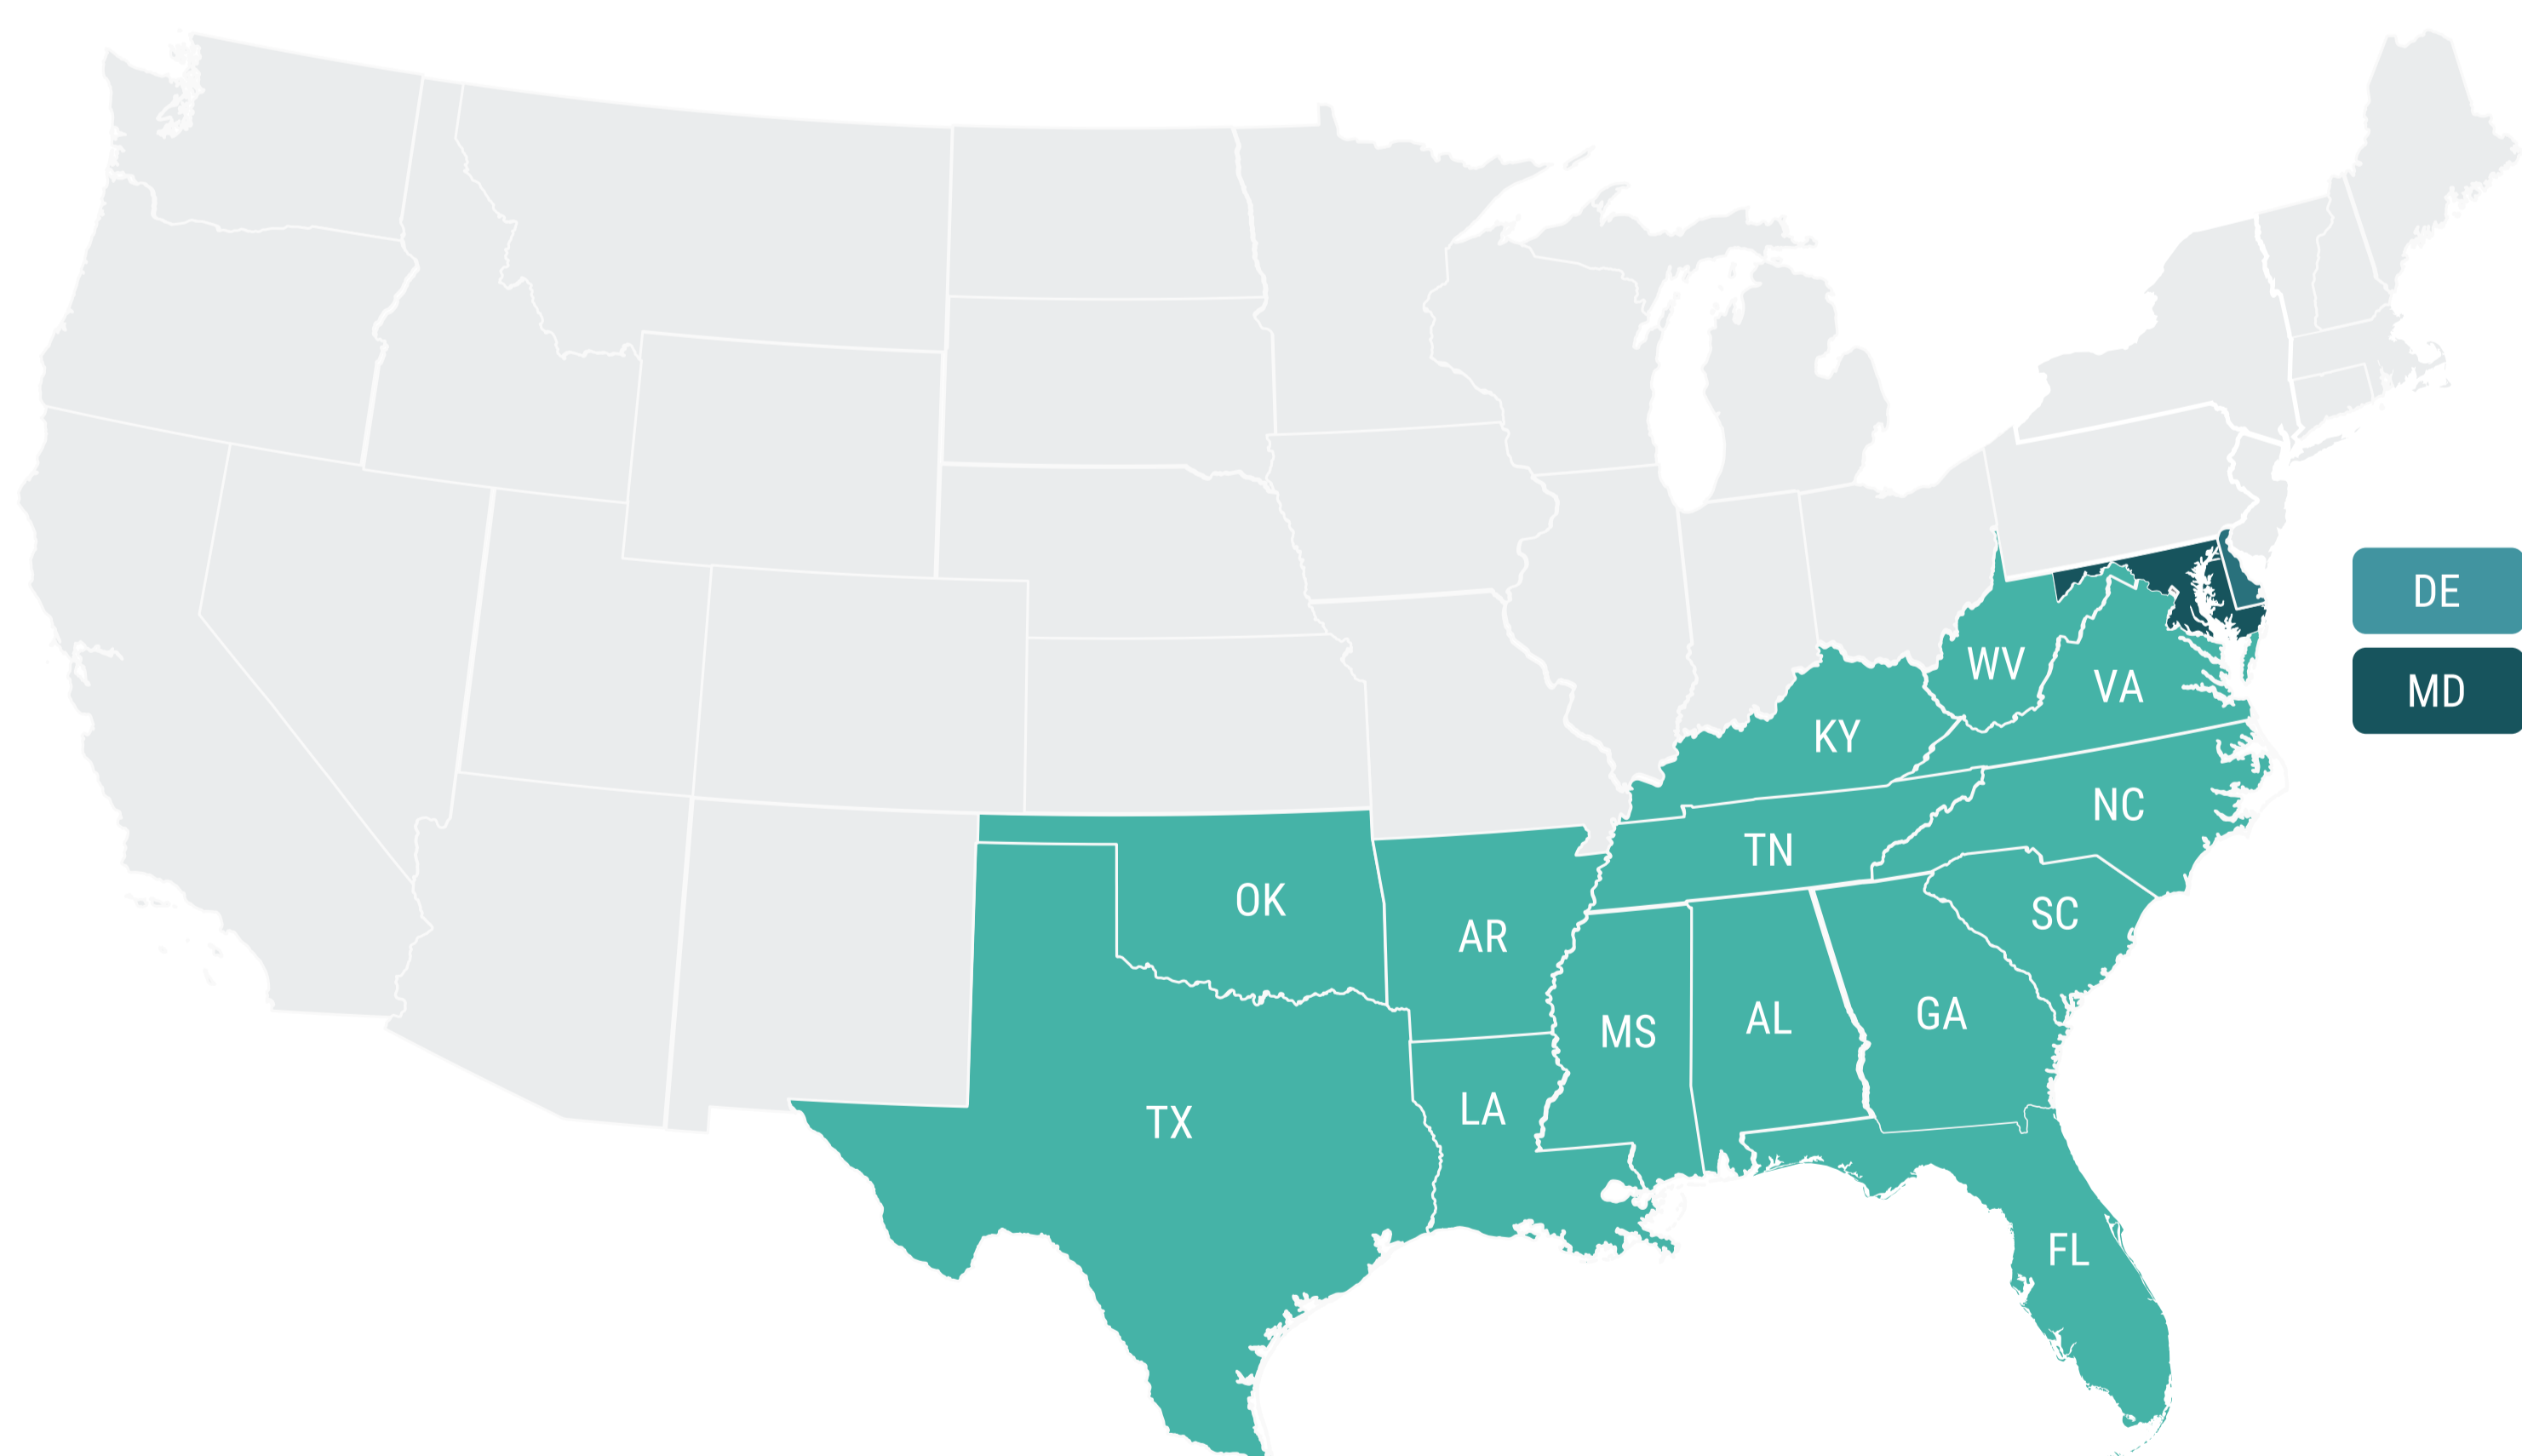

of HIV diagnoses in US women*

*Caused by heterosexual contact

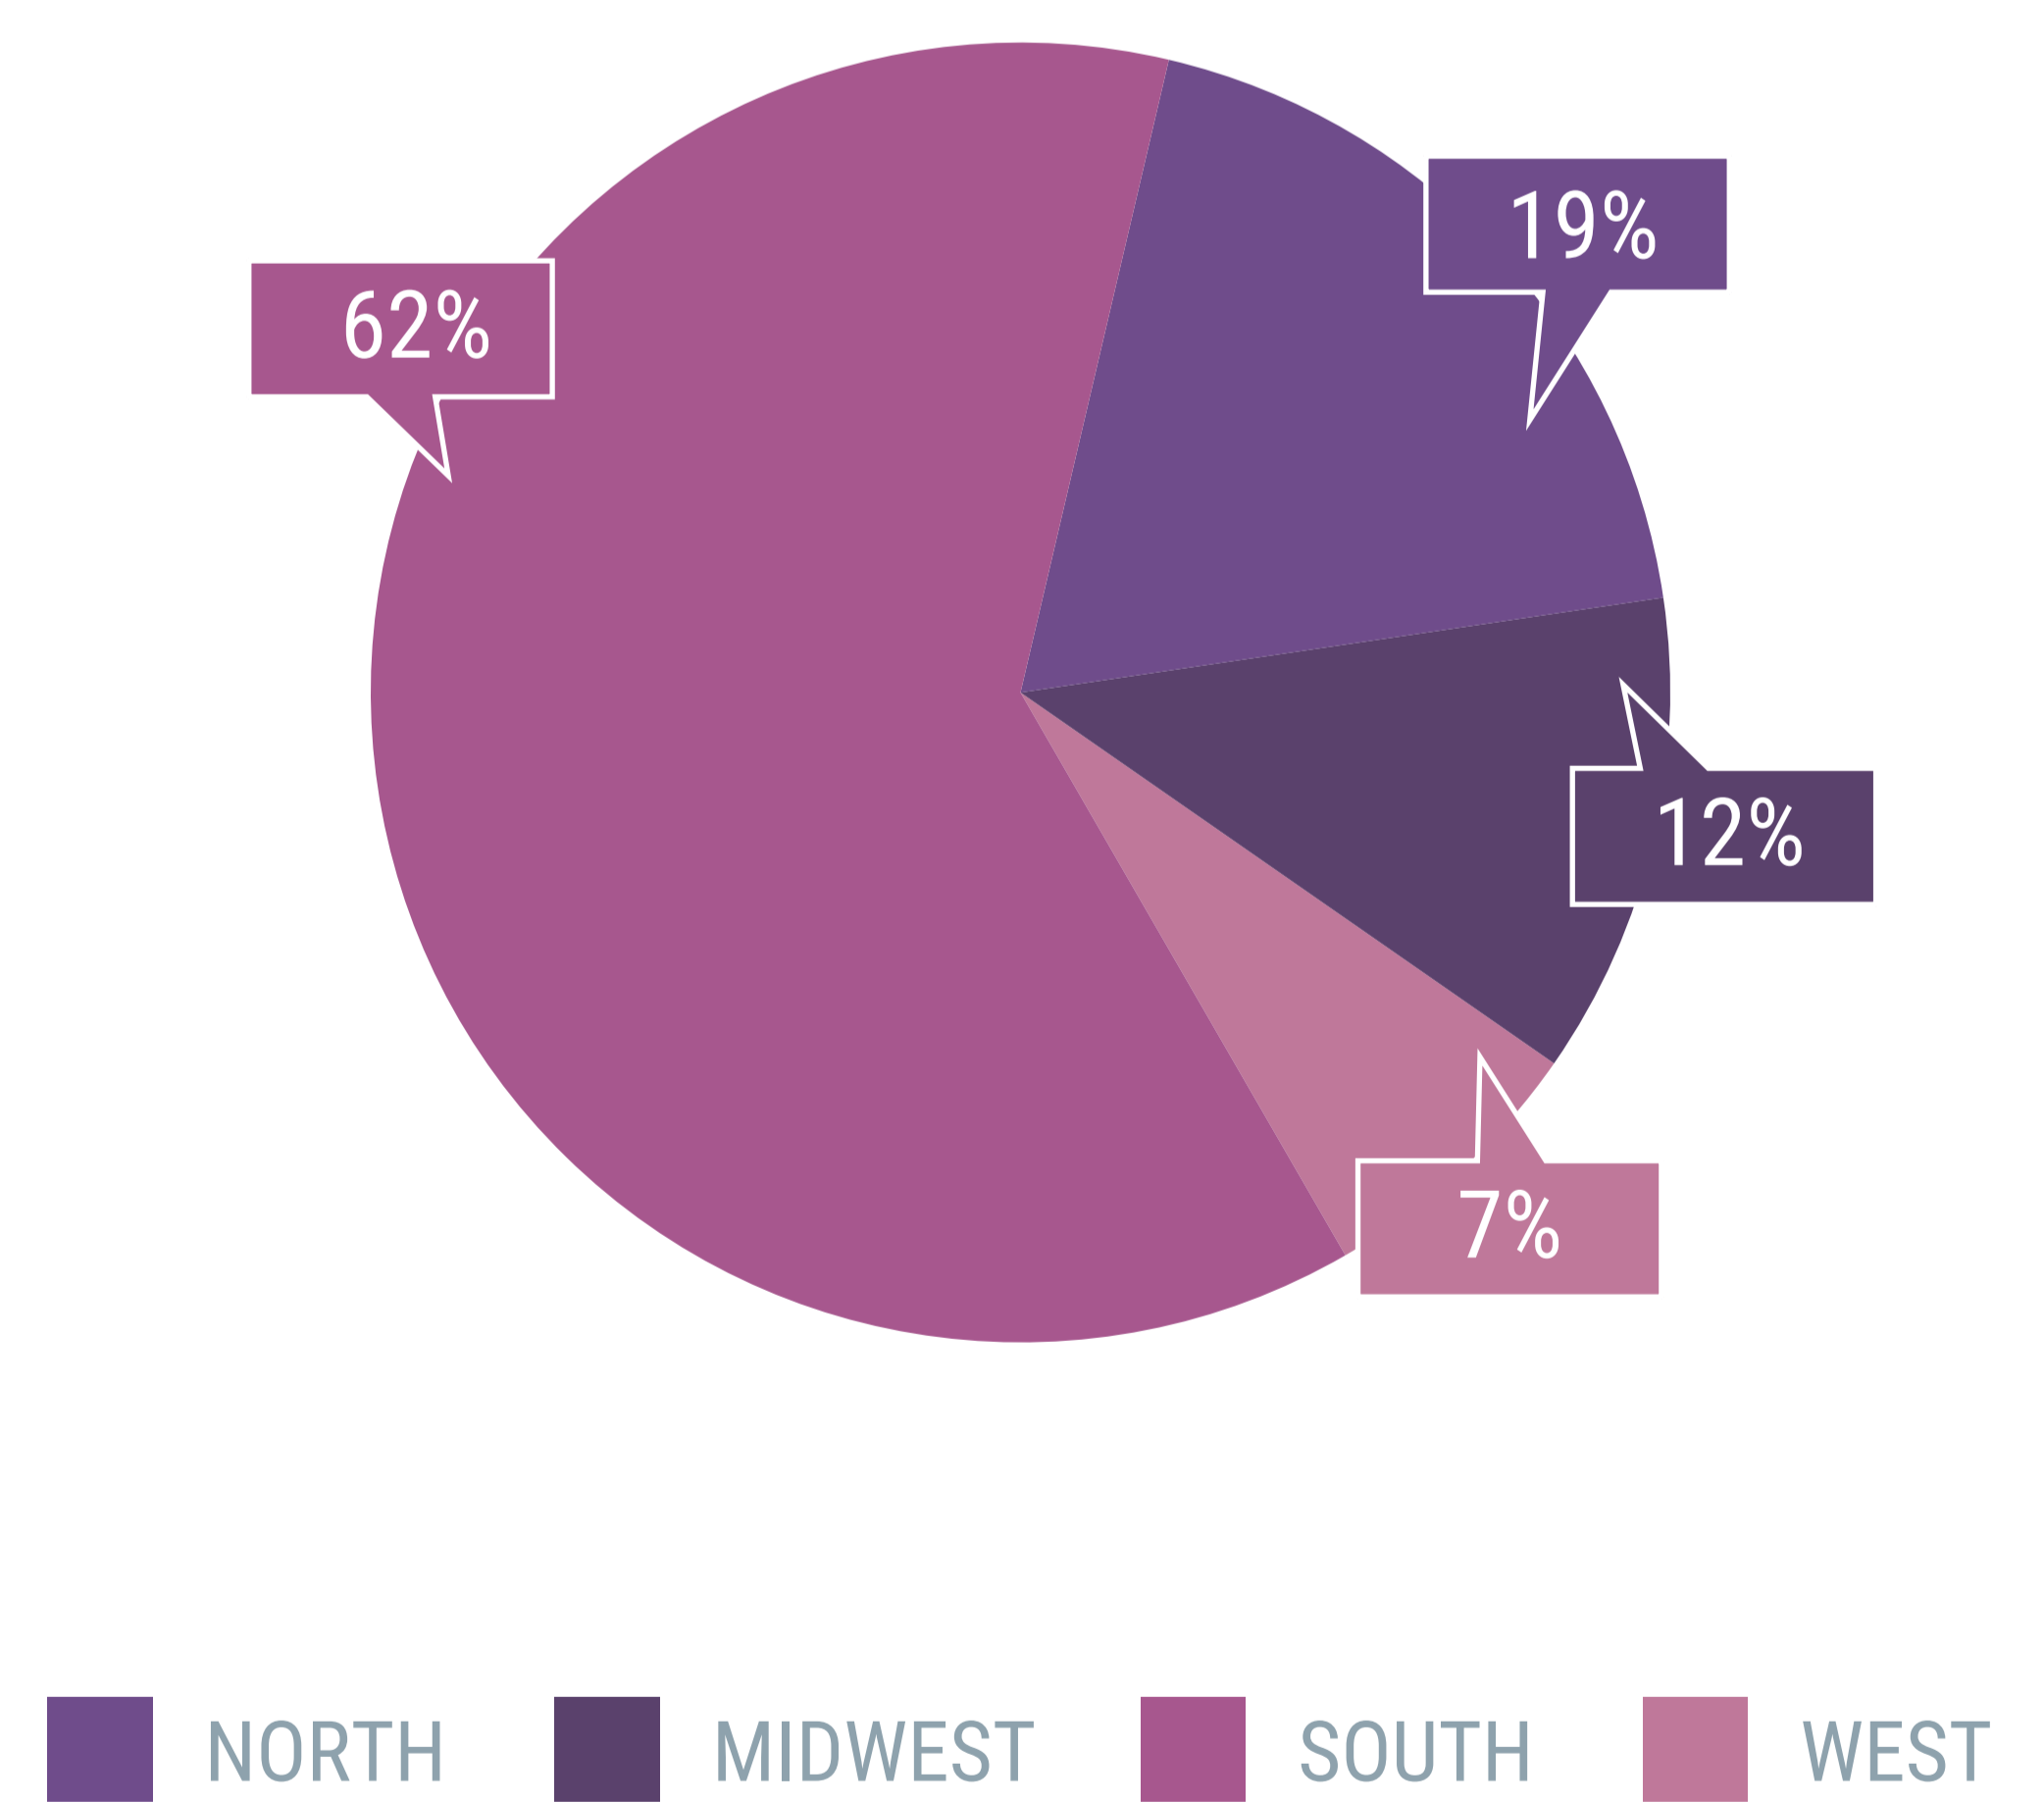

52%

New US HIV diagnoses (men and women) that came from southern states in 2015

Distribution

US distribution of HIV diagnoses in black women

SOURCE: CDC. Diagnoses of HIV infection in the United States and dependent areas, 2015. HIV Surveillance Report. 2016;18-28.

30%

(95% CI, 18.8%-42.7%)

The estimated rate of PTSD among HIV-positive women, over 5x women's national average

55.3%

(95% CI, 36.1%-73.8%)

The estimated rate of intimate partner violence (IPV) among HIV-positive women, more than twice the national rate

SOURCE: Machtiger EL, et al. Psychological trauma and PTSD in HIV-positive women: a meta-analysis. AIDS Behav. 2012;16:2091-2100.